Responsibility Form
(Retain for your records)

The purpose of HEN is to provide practical help, support, and encouragement; as well as to serve and support local home school groups and families. In order to accomplish this, HEN families must cooperate and work together to the benefit of all homeschoolers.

Guidelines

1. I will support and cooperate with the leadership of the HEN organization and my support group.
2. I will give constructive and positive feedback in an appropriate manner when needed, because I genuinely want to help.
3. I will not release information about other families to anyone unless I have received permission from the individual or the HEN board.
4. I will maintain control of my children at all homeschooling activities, as a witness to God and a reflection of the home schooling community.
5. I will use my talents for the benefit of the home educating community.

As HEN Board members, but also parents, we have the primary responsibility of educating our children. E-mail is the preferred method of communication with us. We welcome any communication from you and request that you only telephone board members during the lunch hour or during after school or evening hours. We also ask for your understanding in the timeliness of responding back to you. Our goal is to be able to answer your questions within a few days. Your thoughtfulness in this area allows us to meet the needs of our families and to help serve the home schooling community in the best possible manner.
